President's Message:

Congratulations to Betty Vandevort who will be the Featured Artist at our 2019 Quilting in the Valley Show. Betty is known for her tireless donations of quilt tops to Quilters for Others, pillowcases or the foster kids, and Quilts for the Vets Project. Over the years she has offered her home for all sorts of guild project teams. Not only is Betty a dedicated guild member, but she makes beautiful and varied quilts that will be properly displayed and honored at the show.

Speaking of the 2019 Quilt Show, save those lovely quilts you are making for family and friends and enter them in the show. I'm sure your family and friends will be willing to wait a while to have the quilt. After all it will have then been in our show!

For those of you who may have missed Lyn Mann's talk at the September meeting, here is a great tip from her: Embroider your label into the hanging sleeve! You can also piece a label into this sleeve! Great idea, huh?

We voted at the September meeting and are going to have the Holiday Party at Knollwood again this year. It will be on Monday, December 10 at 6 pm - 10 pm at Knollwood Country Club, 12024 Balboa Blvd., Granada Hills, CA 91344. So put this information on your calendar and look for the reservation form in this newsletter. Copies will be available at the October and November meetings. Knollwood has been very supporting of us and has not changed their price for all the years we have contracted with them. Members will be charged $25 for the dinner.

Thanks to all the members who have signed up to help with the Holiday Party. And thanks to Rosalie Glickman and Jeanette Woll who are helping to get this party going. We will need volunteers to go to the various quilt shops and ask for a donation for a door prize. I will have a letter for you volunteers to give to the shop owners. Trader Joes has also donated to us for a door prize.

Sandy Jewett, President

Hospitality

Thank you to those who brought goodies to the September meeting. Those of you who have October birthdays it's your turn to please bring something to the October meeting.

From Your Quilt Mom

I want to thank all of you who have turned in your opportunity quilt tickets and checks. There are still 44 of you who have not done so. That is $880.00 that we still need to make our budget goal. I will be contacting you if you are one of the 44, to remind you to get your money and tickets in. There is a lovely gift certificate for the one who sells (or buys) the most tickets. Please take a moment to find your tickets and get them turned in. There are only two months left before our drawing!! Please remember that we ALL enjoy the benefits of membership and we ALL need to be part of the financial support required to allow us to provide those benefits.

Again thanks to all who have already done their part to support SFVQA!!

Hugs,
Karen
